

Privacy Policy for Suppliers and Contractors to the Grayshott Village Hall

Introduction

The Grayshott and Hindhead Institute and Village Hall (hereinafter referred to as the Grayshott Village Hall) is committed to protecting personal information. This Privacy Policy relates to our use of any personal information we collect from you as an individual acting as a supplier or contractor providing goods and/or services to the Grayshott Village Hall.

Personal Information Collected

We collect basic personal information such as your name, address, e-mail address and telephone number and bank account details.

Use of Information

We will use your information to communicate with you in regard to the supply or potential supply of goods and services to the Grayshott Village Hall and to make any payment due to you. We will not share your information with other third parties without your consent.

Security

We put in place reasonable security measures to protect against any unauthorised access or damage to, or disclosure or loss of, your information.

Your Rights

Please let us know if your information changes as it is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up to date.

We will keep your information indefinitely after you remain an active supplier to the Grayshott Village Hall because we may resume our connection with you in the future, however you can ask us to remove your personal information from our records at any time and we will do so.

You have the right to request a copy of all the personal information we hold about you in a Subject Access Request. We will take reasonable steps to confirm your identity before providing you with details of any personal information we may hold about you.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may amend this Privacy Policy from time to time; for example, to keep it up to date or to comply with legal requirements. If there will be any significant changes made to the use of your personal information in a manner different from that stated, we will seek your permission first.
